

Geroline

Introducing a distributed learning model for ab initio language learning: on-line, task-based and interactive

Grit Liebscher & Mat Schulze
Department of Germanic and Slavic Studies
University of Waterloo (Ontario/Canada)

www.arts.uwaterloo.ca/~mschulze

Geroline

- J Architecture
- J T5 – Tasks, Tutoring, Topics, Teamwork, Tools
- J WatWizards
- J Student model

Kapitel 1

Step 1 - Read the objectives for Kapitel 1 for a general overview of this module.

Step 2 - Read the summaries for all tasks as they appear on this screen.

Step 3 - Go through each task during the time frame given.

Objectives

Tasks

1. Task 1 (Week 1)

Get to know other students and learn to use conferencing tools.

2. Task 2 (Week 1 and 2)

Get to know Anna Adler.

3. Task 3 (Week 3)

Get to know your "German-in-group" (discussion board.)

4. Task 4 (Week 4)

Identify objects.

5. Assignment 1(Week 4)

Assignment for Kapitel 1

Greetings and farewells - Netscape

Greetings and farewells

Task 3 (Week 3) - Netscape

Step 1 - Read the information about the task below.

Step 2 - Study the material under Topics on the right.

Step 3 - Log on to the discussion board and post your questions starting a new thread.

Step 4 - Answer all of the questions other students have posted on the discussion board.

Step 5 - Read the answers from other students to your questions to see if you need to clarify anything (for help on how for clarification in German, see Asking for Clarification on the right).

Step 6 - In your group (started by the group secretary with a new thread), write, read and edit your group profile, which group secretary will then send to your instructor.

Task 3 (Week 3)

Purpose: Task 3 will enable you to get to know your "German-in-group" in German! Through task 3, you will learn to identify and describe yourself and others and you will learn how to ask for information and clarification. You will use the "German-in-group" discussion board for the first time.

Time line: Start task 3 at the beginning of the third week (or earlier) and complete it by the end of the third week.

Description of task: Using the "German-in-group" discussion board, you and the other students in this course will ask for and provide the following information (in German!): students' names, ages, looks, where students are from, and where students live. Please use the formal way (Sie) to address each other (see "Subject pronouns" under "Topics" on the right). The goal is to provide a group profile. (Note: This task prepares you for part 2 of Assignment 1.)

Topics:

- Greetings and farewells
- The verb *sein*
- Subject pronouns
- The verb *heißen*
- The alphabet
- Physical characteristics
- Question formation
- Asking for clarification

GER101

Library Help UW home

Course Tools

Welcome

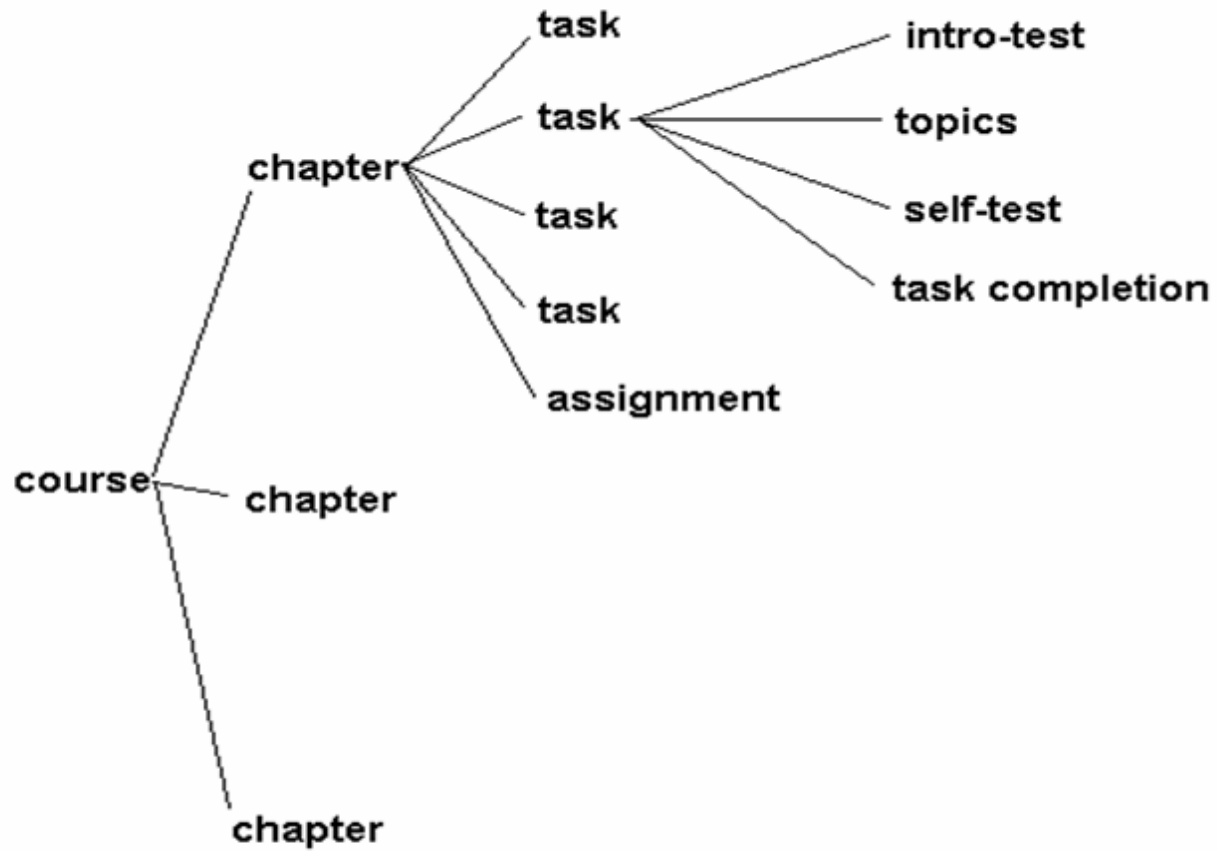

Course Info

Kapitel 1

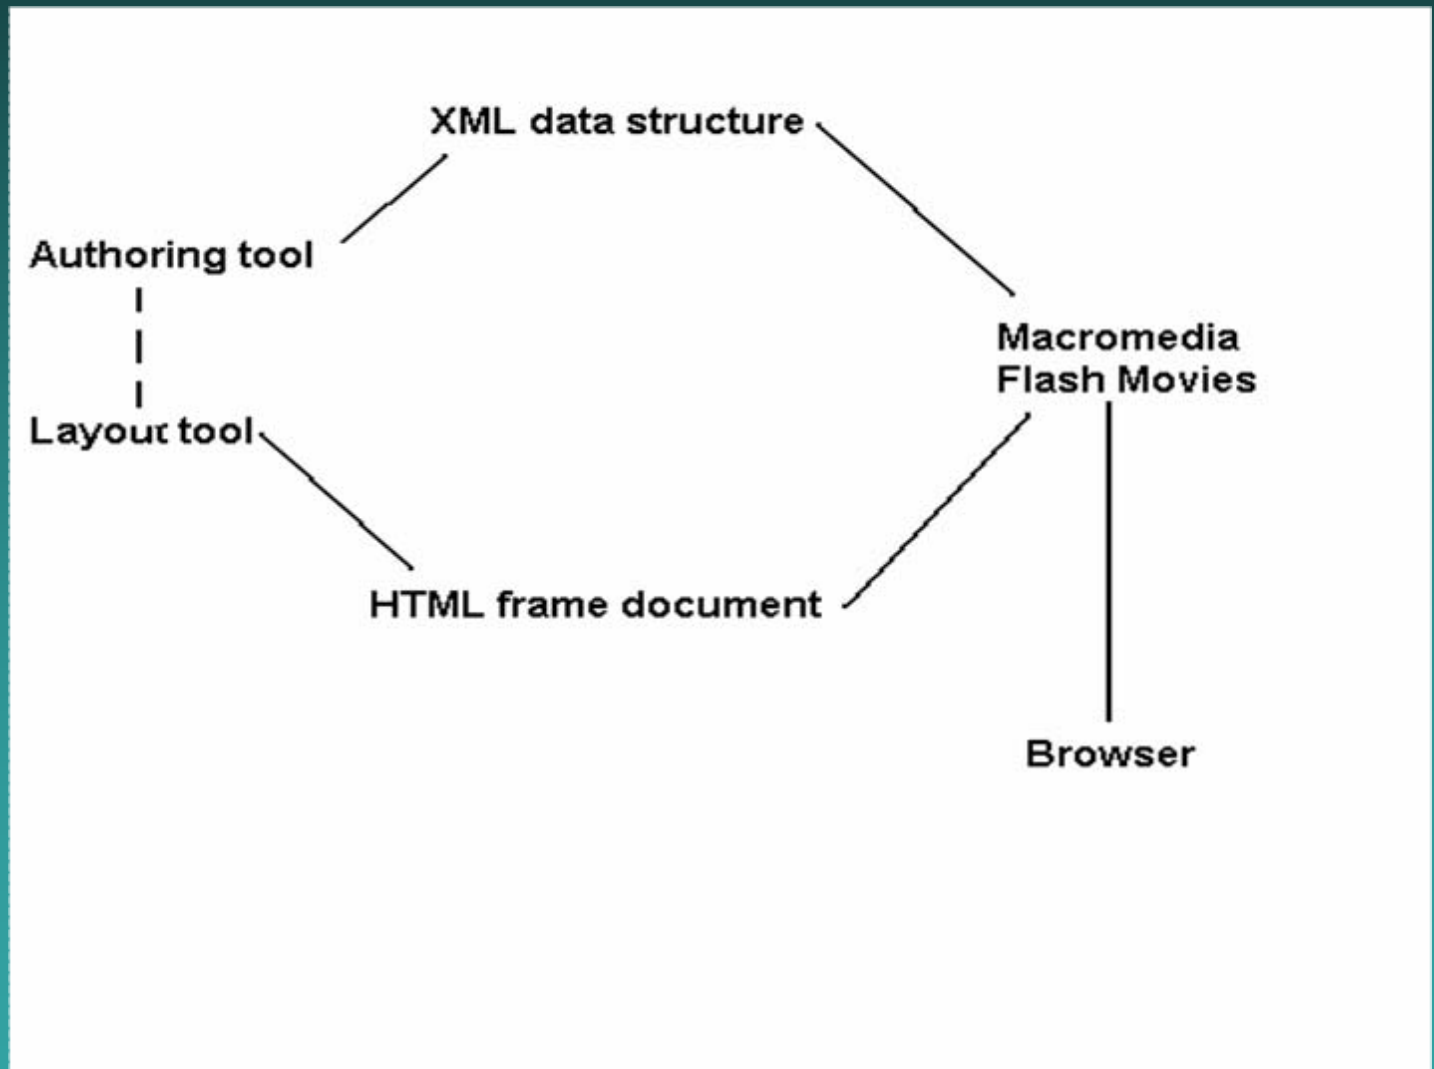

Kapitel 2

Kapitel 3

Structure

WatWizards

Student Model

- „ Data from a browser?
- „ Bayesian or classical?
- „ Tailored test and tailored course?